Makivvik's roles in the Land Use Planning Process

- Article 6 calls for the development of Land Use Plans which notably shall provide for the conservation and utilization of land; and guide and direct resources use and development in the NMR.
- Land Use Plans to be effective require the active participation of both Government and Nunavik Inuit, for which Makivvik acts as the representative.
- Makivvik as owner of the Nunavik Inuit Lands participates in ensuring that the relevant goals and objectives of Nunavik Inuit are taken into account.
